

Diversity monitoring summary

LilesMorris actively promotes diversity and inclusion and believes it is important to provide equal opportunities for everyone.

As a small firm we work hard to ensure we have inclusive team and reflect our clients and this is an ongoing process.

Under our probate licence, we are required to publish diversity statistics for our workforce for 2023. The charts are based on data provided via a survey and is set out in the charts below in a way that protects the privacy of our employees and where sufficient answers were given to provide a meaningful picture.

We are committed to using this data to continue to support a culture of diversity and inclusion.

